President Anne Gary Pannell

AS PRESIDENT of Sweet Briar College, I wish to pay tribute to the more than 3400 persons, corporations, and foundations whose generous gifts and hard work have made the 1964-65 Sweet Briar Fund a success.

The highlight of this year's Fund was the $300,000 Dana Challenge, described in detail on page 3. Through the enthusiastic response of Sweet Briar's alumnae and friends the matching fund was completed in just under 12 months. We salute Charles A. Dana for his initiative in stimulating this successful endeavor.

Gifts to this year's Sweet Briar Fund have made possible a substantial increase in faculty salaries and the completion of the Chapel Fund. They have also provided additional scholarship funds, and new equipment for the language laboratory and for the Guion Science Building.

Continued improvement of faculty salaries and student scholarships is essential to the strengthening of our teaching program. Thus a substantial increase in Sweet Briar's endowment is the goal toward which we must bend our energy and imagination in the months ahead.

The names of all those who contributed to the 1964-65 Sweet Briar Fund are listed on the following pages. To them we extend sincere appreciation for their investment in the qualitative progress of Sweet Briar College.

DANA CHALLENGE

Distinguished American industrialist and philanthropist Charles A. Dana became convinced of Sweet Briar's need to expand and improve its library facilities when he first visited the campus in April, 1964. With the same foresight and practicality which have characterized his many benefactions to colleges and universities, Mr. Dana offered Sweet Briar a challenge.

On July 23, 1964 the Charles A. Dana Foundation proposed a conditional grant of $300,000 to Sweet Briar College, to be matched dollar for dollar in cash. Two thirds of the total fund, it was agreed, would be used to construct an addition to the Mary Helen Cochran Library.

Sweet Briar's Overseers readily accepted this challenge. They took the lead in raising the matching funds and their enthusiasm was immediately caught by alumnae, parents and friends. By July 23, 1965, one year after the challenge was offered, gifts and pledges to the Dana Challenge Fund already totaled $301,359. Recently two generous grants, $20,000 from the Charles E. Merrill Trust and $30,000 from Avalon Foundation brought the Dana Challenge to $352,244.

Sweet Briar College extends a special thanks to all those responsible for the success of this fund and takes great pride in announcing that, through their efforts THE DANA CHALLENGE HAS BEEN MET!
